

Notes (All Scriptures are in KJV):

Locate yourself on the map of life. Where are you now in your spiritual condition? Honestly knowing where you are is the first step to healing. However, making an assessment of where you are now will help you determine what needs to happen to get you where you want to be, or where God wants you to be. Where you have been or what you've been through does not determine your destination. Here's the good news, "YOUR CURRENT CONDITION DOES NOT DETERMINE YOUR DESTINATION."

Jeremiah 29:10-14 - "For thus saith the Lord, that after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto You. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith the Lord: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the Lord; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

*Focusing on what you have and giving it to the Lord allows him to bless it. Jesus wants you to know he's fighting for your future!

Romans 8:28-31; 35; 37-39 - "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose. For whom He did foreknow, he did pre-destinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom He did pre-destinate, them He also called, them he also justified: and whom He justified, them He also glorified. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more that conquerors through Him that loved us. For, I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come. Nor to separate us from height, nor depth nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

*He had provision ready for your destination: ie journey

Ephesians 4:7 - "But unto every one of us is given Grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ."

*You are handpicked by God to produce fruit.

John 15:16 - "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you."

Remember whatever situation you find yourself in God can turn it around and bring good out of it. Don't wait until you have everything to start working towards your destiny.
